Japanese/B.A.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

Japanese is a very popular major offering a broad range of courses in Japanese language, literature, linguistics, theater, religion, and film. Students are required to achieve advanced levels of proficiency in modern spoken and written Japanese, as well as broad and detailed knowledge of Japanese premodern, modern, and contemporary culture. Students who complete this major have the linguistic and cultural competence to work in various fields related to Japan, including business, finance, trade, journalism, diplomacy, cultural institutions and non-profit organizations, education, and academia.

Listed below are the lower division preparation for the major. To be considered for this major, you must complete the following courses by the end of spring before transfer: one year of college level declared Asian language OR at least one year of high school in which the primary language of instruction was the declared Asian language. Completion of two years of college level declared Asian language courses are strongly preferred. A placement exam is required for all language majors regardless of credits earned in lower division language courses. All courses must be taken for a letter grade. For more information regarding this major and UCLA's transfer selection process, visit www.alc.ucla.edu and <https://admission.ucla.edu>.

PLEASE NOTE: the community college courses listed below have been approved to satisfy the preparation for this major at UCLA, but they may not be exact equivalents of the UCLA courses listed.
