Nordic Studies/B.A.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

The B.A. in Nordic Studies provides students with a robust knowledge of the cultures and histories of the Nordic countries from a global and transdisciplinary perspective. Importantly, the major allows interested students an opportunity to explore the Nordic region from the perspective of non-Humanities disciplines if they so choose while requiring a strong grounding in the history and cultures of the region. While there are no specific preparation courses required for admission into this major, the department recommends completion of IGETC or the General Education course pattern at your college by the end of spring before transfer. For more information regarding preparation for this major and UCLA's transfer selection process, visit <https://elts.ucla.edu> and <https://admission.ucla.edu>.
