Applied Linguistics/B.A.

IMPORTANT MAJOR DETAILS

Listed below are the lower division preparation courses for this major. To be considered for this major, you must complete the following courses by the end of spring before transfer: one year of college level coursework in the declared language OR at least one year of high school in which the primary language of instruction was the declared language. Completion of an introduction to linguistics course is strongly preferred. Completion of a second college level foreign language is strongly recommended. A placement exam is required for all language majors regardless of credits earned in lower division language courses. All courses must be taken for a letter grade. For more information regarding this major and UCLA's transfer selection process, visit www.linguistics.ucla.edu and <https://admission.ucla.edu>.

PLEASE NOTE: the community college courses listed below have been approved to satisfy the preparation for this major at UCLA, but they may not be exact equivalents of the UCLA courses.
