REQUIREMENTS

PREPARATION FOR TRANSFER AT THE JUNIOR LEVEL

Students interested in the French major or minor at UC Berkeley should complete as much French coursework as possible at the community-college level. Two years of college-level French, or its equivalent, is highly recommended.

This major may require at least one additional semester of French language study at UC Berkeley (French 3 and/or French 4) before enrollment can be approved for 3rd year French courses (French 102).

Once accepted at UC Berkeley, all students are strongly encouraged to consult with the UC Berkeley Undergraduate Major Adviser in French regarding placement.

All transfer students should consult the Placement Guidelines on the French Department website at <http://french.berkeley.edu> to determine the best level for initial enrollment in French at UC Berkeley.

Transfer students wishing to enroll initially in French 102 or above should contact the Undergraduate Major Adviser in French at fredept@berkeley.edu to confirm enrollment.

FRENCH 1

Complete a UC-transferable first-semester grammar and composition course. All students are encouraged to consult with the UC Berkeley Undergraduate Major Adviser regarding placement after enrollment at UC Berkeley.

FRENCH 2

Complete a UC-transferable second-semester grammar and composition course. All students are encouraged to consult with the UC Berkeley Undergraduate Major Adviser regarding placement after enrollment at UC Berkeley.

FRENCH 3

Complete a UC-transferable third-semester grammar and composition course. All students are encouraged to consult with the UC Berkeley Undergraduate Major Adviser regarding placement after enrollment at UC Berkeley.

FRENCH 4

Complete a UC-transferable fourth-semester grammar and composition course. All students are encouraged to consult with the UC Berkeley Undergraduate Major Adviser regarding placement after enrollment at UC Berkeley.
