REQUIREMENTS

- Completion of Berkeley's Rhetoric 10 or Rhetoric 20 with a grade of C or better is required to declare the major in Rhetoric.
- Both Rhetoric 10 and Rhetoric 20 must be taken on campus at UC Berkeley, as equivalent courses are generally not available elsewhere. Students should plan to take one of the two in their first semester at Cal, based on their entry term.
- While pure Rhetoric courses aren't available at many institutions, and students are unable to meet major requirements before arriving at Cal, there may be courses available that can prepare you for the UC Berkeley Rhetoric major. Courses offered in other departments such as Philosophy, Comparative Literature and English sometimes cover Rhetoric relevant or adjacent topics, and can better prepare you for Rhetoric course offerings at Cal. Feel free to check in with the UCB Rhetoric Undergrad Advisor for more insight into this.
