To: University of California, Irvine
2022-2023 General Catalog, Quarter

From: De Anza College
2022-2023 General Catalog, Quarter

Criminology, Law and Society, B.A.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The major in Criminology, Law and Society is designed to provide students with an overview of the American legal system and in-depth focus on the regulation of behavior, the problem of crime, and responses to crime within this system. Students explore these topics through multiple disciplinary perspectives, including anthropological, economic, historical, political, and sociological approaches to the study of law, behavior, and institutions of social control. In addition to learning to apply social science techniques to analyzing social problems, students in this course of study will be especially well-prepared for careers in criminal justice and regulatory agencies, public policy organizations, and direct service provision to people involved with the legal system as well as for pursuing graduate studies in law, sociology, criminology, and criminal justice

This major does not require completion of prerequisites for admission as a transfer student.

NOTE: In fulfillment of the requirements below, a single course may be used only once.
