Scandinavian Languages and Cultures/ BA.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

The B.A. in Scandinavian Languages and Cultures seeks to train undergraduate students in the languages, literatures and cultures of the Nordic region (Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland). The goal of the major in Scandinavian Languages and Cultures is to provide the student with a broad, yet robust, knowledge of the languages, literatures and cultures of the Nordic countries. Our course offerings span five centuries, five countries and five languages.

Listed below are the lower division preparation course for the major. To be considered for this major, you must complete the following courses by the end of spring before transfer: one year of college level Spanish OR at least one year of high school in which the primary language of instruction was Spanish. Completion of two years of college level foreign language is strongly preferred/recommended. A placement exam is required for all language majors regardless of credits earned in lower division language courses. Additionally, some language courses may be cross listed and available in different departments, however all major preparation courses must be taken from the respective department. All courses must be taken for a letter grade. For information regarding this major and UCLA's transfer selection process, visit <https://www.elts.ucla.edu> and <https://admission.ucla.edu>.

PLEASE NOTE: the community college courses listed below have been approved to satisfy the preparation for this major at UCLA, but they may not be exact equivalents of the UCLA courses.
