Ethnomusicology/BA.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

The Ethnomusicology B.A. major combines hands-on musical experience with academic study to explore the rich variety of musical expressions throughout the world, including Africa, Europe, the Americas, West, East, South, and Southeast Asia with concentrations. The UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music aspires to educate the whole student through productive collaborations between performance and scholarship, a cross-cultural, global understanding of music, and preparatory training. Transfer applicants to the school are considered on the basis of academic achievement as well as departmental screening requirements and must have a minimum 3.2 GPA at the time of application. California community college students are strongly encouraged, but not required, to complete IGETC; all other transfer students are encouraged to make progress toward completion of the school's general education requirements.

Recommended preparation for the major:

A one year comprehensive music theory course sequence, covering musicianship (ear training and sight singing), as well as keyboard skills; or one year of music theory and one year of musicianship (ear training and sight singing)

Two years of participation in a large performance group such as an orchestra, choir, or wind ensemble

Exemptions/substitutions for lower division requirements will be determined by the department in the summer following admission. Syllabi or other descriptive course documentation may be required for consideration.

Audition/interview and Supplemental Requirements: In addition to the UC Application, applicants are required to submit supplemental application materials which vary by major and are used in a prescreening process to determine which students will be invited to interview and/or audition. The UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music houses the supplemental application on the Acceptd platform - <https://app.getacceptd.com/herbalpert>. Specific supplemental application requirements for each major program (and, for Music Performance, Music Education, and Global Jazz Studies majors, specific instrument area) can be found on Acceptd. Other general information about the application process can be found on the School of Music's website at <https://schoolofmusic.ucla.edu/admissions/undergraduate>.
