European Studies/B.A.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

The European Studies major consists of 6 preparation courses, the language requirement, and 12 Upper Division classes. Students in the major have options to study abroad, participate in research, and complete internships associated with their major. Some students choose to double-major with other programs on campus, and several choose to add a minor.

You must complete the following courses by the end of spring before transfer: one year of a college level modern European language OR at least one year of high school in which the primary language of instruction was a modern European language. In addition, you must complete one course from: History of Europe, French Literature, Russian Film, French Culture/Civilization, Russian Literature; two courses in sociocultural anthropology, contemporary world history, cultural geography, world literature and two courses in comparative politics, introductory sociology, economic geography and macroeconomics and microeconomics (in addition to foreign language). All courses must be taken for a letter grade. For more information regarding preparation for this major and UCLA's transfer selection process, visit <https://www.international.ucla.edu/esba> and www.admission.ucla.edu.

NOTE: Completion of intermediate/advanced foreign language is strongly preferred/recommended.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Two years of a modern foreign language other than English. The language requirement can also be fulfilled in part or in total by taking a placement examination given through the appropriate language department at UCLA.
