Architectural Studies/B.A.

IMPORTANT MAJOR INFORMATION

The focus of the Architectural Studies major is on the built environment. The curriculum conceives of architecture as a cultural, creative, and technical practice and a discipline with direct social impact. Within the context of a liberal arts education, a finely balanced set of architecture and urban design courses ranging from the history and theory of design to contemporary building technologies will provide students with a diverse foundation of knowledge in the field of architecture and prepare them for graduate school and /or careers in a wide range of fields.

Admission to the Architectural Studies major is very competitive. The most important admission criteria is the supplemental application which requires a portfolio of creative work and major-specific written statement. While it may be beneficial to complete the courses listed below as preparation, they are not required for admission and there is no guarantee they will satisfy major requirements and/or transfer as exact equivalents of any UCLA courses. Substitutions for lower division requirements will be determined by the department in the summer following admission. Syllabi or other descriptive course documentation may be required for consideration.

Suggested (not required) preparation for the major: Two courses in the history of architecture {Pre-history-Mannerism and 1600-present} and one Introduction to Architecture course. Please note that most transfer admits complete these courses at UCLA, depending on course availability at their community college.

Portfolio and Supplemental Requirements: In addition to the general UC Application, applicants must submit a supplemental application that includes a portfolio of creative work and written statement (additional fees may apply).

All students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA at the time of application (November 30). Students MUST complete the requisite two English courses and one Math course by the end of Spring prior to transfer. Students are encouraged to take their required English and Math courses as early as possible with at least one English course completed by the end of Fall. Completion of IGETC is not required, but strongly recommended. More information may be found at www.arts.ucla.edu/apply.

Architectural Studies considers sophomore transfers. For more information about sophomore transfer admission criteria, please visit: www.arts.ucla.edu/apply.
